

WE HAVE IT--

The RHMAN OLIVE OIL is the finest oil for medical purposes. Physicians all over the country use it and prescribe it. It is fine for table use, too, because it will beat up in a MAYONNAISE for you as stiff and smooth as ice cream in fifteen minutes. That is because it is scientifically processed and absolutely pure.

Large size bottle, $1.00; next size, 60 cents.

Don't waste your health and money by buying cheap olive oil.

High School Students Orate

Eleventh Annual Commencement Exercises A Feast Of Wisdom And Most Excellent Music.

A crowded house witnessed the commencement exercises of the Astoria high school class of 1903 at Fisher's last evening. The long and elaborate program as heretofore published in these columns was carried out in a pleasingly successful manner and much to the enjoyment of the audience. It is not too much to say that the eleventh annual commencement program was considerably more appreciated than several which have preceded it.

The graduates, Alice M. Goddard, Emma Una, Wm. H. Wood, Mary H. Dawson, Grover Uttinger, Laura M. Paastaband, Felix E. Moore, R. Ethel Timmons, Alvin R. Campbell and Laurids Lauridsen, acquitted themselves very creditably, attesting to faithful work during the school years now ended, and to the efforts of capable instructors.

The orations treated of subjects historical, ethical, practical, political and poetical. The valedictorian, Laurids Lauridsen, spoke lucidly on the live subject of the election of U. S. senators by popular vote. Another oration with a political complexion and of particular excellence was a defence of "Russia as she is," by Emma Una, who sought to show that the country usually represented in up-to-date cartoonery as a fat bear in the act of drowning a Chinese is not the cruel and blood-thirsty nation which it is said to be, but that Russia is really one of the comparatively younger nations of the earth, and is making excellent and sure progress from barbarism toward the highest civilization.

An address full of interesting information on educational subjects and wise admonition to the graduates was delivered by Prof. H. C. Howe, of the chair of English literature in the state university at Eugene. The speaker ably advised a continuance of the pursuit of knowledge while the mind is in a plastic and receptive state, beyond which its acquisition is difficult or impossible.

The music presented was a genuine treat, and the vociferous applause easily proved its hearty appreciation by the audience. The music program was prepared under the direction of Mrs. J. T. Ross, adding another to her many successes. Two quartets participated, one consisting of the Misses Bess and Nellie Uttinger; the other of Messrs. J. Johnson, W. Gratke, T. D. Ferguson and F. Carnahan. The solos were by Mrs. J. T. Ross and Mr. F. Carnahan. A feature which made a genuine hit with the audience was the singing by the male quartette of an original song portraying the "by special request" performer, written by J. C. Swase.

The class was presented to the school board by Principal A. L. Clark, with and address in which the professor rose to eloquence while describing in a feeling manner the earnest efforts of the students for success, and the sincere interest of their instructors in their welfare. The diplomas were presented to the class by President W. H. Barker, and, while the unexcelled Columbia orchestra string quartet, composed of Messrs. J. M. Johnston, Conrad Le Blanc, Theo. Frederickson and B. D. Johnson, discoursed sweet music, the sweet girl graduates and their male associates were almost literally buried in a wealth of beautiful flowers.

The others who occupied seats on the stage were school directors Judge J. P. Goodman, J. A. Eakin and J. E. Higgins; teachers, Miss Dora Baddolet and Miss Gertrude Hulst, and Rev. Henry Marcotte, who made the invocation.

Eighth Grade Pupils Hold Well-Attended Exercises--Program Shows Results of Careful Training.

The eighth grade graduation exercises held at the Adair school yesterday were attended by many friends of the pupils, and was the most successful that has taken place in the city. The program was gone through in excellent style, and everybody was highly pleased with the results of the careful training shown by the children.

J. A. Eakin made an able address to the classes, and Hon. William H. Barker presented the certificates. The following pupils took part in the program: Wilma Young, Lillian Anderson, Thyra Knudsen, Jennie Jeffers, Rives Emerson, Mary Adair, Proctor Thompson, Jesse Fong, Lolo Foard, Henry Bellund, Mary Clark, Fay Ball, Hanna Asp, Morris Adair, Fannie Seiml, Park Seiml.

EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS.

George L. Colwell of Astoria has returned from Bear river where he has been to complete arrangements for an extensive logging deal, says the Ilwaco Journal. He has just closed a contract for 1,000,000 feet of timber which will be logged this summer by Henry Embree. In addition to this Mr. Colwell has 2,000,000 feet near where the first lies which will be handled as soon as the first 1,000,000 is removed and following this, 6,000,000 feet on Shoalwater bay will be logged as fast as it can be cut off. This will make 9,000,000 feet of timber which Mr. Colwell will log from the banks of Bear river and Shoalwater bay this summer, and this timber will come through Ilwaco to be taken to the mills along the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

LAW MUST BE OBSERVED.

It has become customary on the part of some trap and net fishers to let the observance of the law regarding marks fall into desuetude. Fish Warden Var Dusen has been calling attention to the fact that the regulations must be strictly complied with in the future. Deputy Fish Commissioner Burton of Washington has been promulgating the same notice among the fishermen and trap owners in his district, and a combined effort will be made to have it observed.

Traps and fish wheels must have the license number painted in a conspicuous place, as must boats. Nets must be marked on the end and center cork.

BEHIND THE BARS.

There are at present more prisoners in the county jail than there have been for some time. Bock is more in the public mind just now than any of the others, although young Jarvi, whose trial is set for the twenty-fifth, will be the object of attention when his case comes up. Bock spends much of his time in pacing slowly up and down the corridor, apparently doing a lot of thinking, while Jarvi appears bright and cheerful, being seemingly quite confident that his trial will have a favorable result for him.

SPENDS $750,000 YEARLY.

The dean of the advertising business in America is now on a brief visit to Astoria in the person of Charles A. Rucker, who is registered at the Occident. Mr. Rucker is one of the largest advertisers in the world, and is at present on his annual tour of inspection of the Pacific coast, which he has visited regularly for the last twenty-one years.

Mr. Rucker is a member of the Swift Specific Company and of the Bradford Regulator Company, of Atlanta, Georgia, two concerns that spend annually over $750,000 in advertising their preparations.

WALLUSKI WEDDING.

Jens P. Petersen and Miss Andrea B. Andreassen were married yesterday by Rev. Oscar Ostrom at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Petersen on the Walluski. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Hans Petersen, and the bridegroom is a brother of Hans, so that the wedding was a family affair. For the present the young couple will live with their relatives.

TO MOVE MILL.

J. N. Brinn and R. L. Stanwood have purchased the sawmill owned by E. C. Stanwood and Sherman Bros. of St. Helena, and will remove it to a new location on Upper Milton creek. The new purchasers have bought several hundred acres of timber land from Muckle Bros., and expect to run the mill to its full capacity, which is from 35,000 to 40,000 feet per day.

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED.

Miss Clara Barker entertained the primary department of the Methodist Sunday school in the parlors of the church yesterday afternoon. Miss Barker was assisted in the entertaining by Miss Nellie Bussey, and the ladies left nothing undone to further the pleasure of the little people. Lemonade, cake and "rally round the window" kept the children in high spirits and they all agreed with one of the little boys who assured Miss Barker that her social was "all right."

Judge McBride will be in the city today, and cases will be set for the regular term, which begins Monday.

Park Is At Last Bought By City

Commission Selects Shively Site Of Twelve Acres Near Reservoir--Improvement To Begin At Once.

Astoria will now have a park of its own. This was decided last night, when the park commission agreed upon the purchase of the twelve-acre tract behind the reservoir at the price of $2500. The Push club has assigned the contract it held with C. W. Shively, the owner of the land, to the park commission. Under the terms of the assignment the commission is to pay to Mr. Shively the sum of $1250 in yearly installments of $250. Within three years from the date of the last installment, the sum of $1250 must be paid to the Push club, without interest, this being the amount that organization has already cleared off from the purchase price. This gives the city until 1910 to pay the entire amount.

Since the assignment was made the Push club has paid $250 on the current installment, and the commission last night directed that a warrant for the amount be drawn immediately in favor of the club.

The resolution authorizing the purchase of the Shively site was resultant on the report made by the special committee, consisting of G. C. Fulton and Alfred S. Tee. The report showed that all available sites in the city had been visited, and that the Shively was considered the most suitable, being on high ground, slightly, and capable of being beautified at a small cost.

At the next regular meeting of the commission two tax levies will be made, and it is probable that the work of fencing the property and beginning its improvement will be undertaken at once.

GOOD RACING BY ASTORIA HOSE TEAM

Cart Men Selected for Contests to Be Engaged in This Summer.

The members of the hose team had a try-out on Commercial street last evening and gave considerable entertainment to the great crowds collected to view the performance. The men covered a distance of 150 yards. M. D. Knutsen coming in ahead. He won many plaudits from the people who were genuinely struck by the young man's fleet-footedness. Al Minard came in second, with Chas. Stockton third. Jim Phillips acted as starter and C. A. Collidge and R. C. F. Astbury were the judges. Fred Brown, manager and trainer, rendered valuable assistance with his coaching. The decision of the judges placed the men in the following order:

M. D. Knutsen, Al Minard (leaders); Chas. Stockton, W. Painter (nozzle man), W. Johnson, Otto Gramms, Fred Wright, Chas. Stellright (hydrant man), Jake Wedal, Geo. Taylor, John Corno (hydrant man), Hayes Morgan, George Malar and Ted Sutton. The subs are: Coffey, Kinkela, Carney, McCullom and F. Raymond. Trainer and active manager, Fred Brown, Jr.

After the races the men were measured for their suits by the A. Dunbar Company, that firm being selected to furnish them.

The first races to be engaged in are to be in Portland and Oregon City next month. As the race in the latter place will take place on the afternoon of the fourth, negotiations are now under way to arrange for the Portland meet on either the 3d or the morning following. This arrangement will avoid any conflict and will give the team plenty of chance to get to Oregon City to participate in the sports there.

LOVELY GOWNS.

No establishment on the coast is able to turn out finer garments than the two handsome stamine gowns now shown in the window of the A. Dunbar Co. store. These dresses are the handiwork of Mrs. Jewett, and for style, workmanship and materials compare favorably with the swiftest imported dresses. They are the admired of all beholders, proving that the finest work can be done in this as well as in any city.
